

The Service offered in the maPollution application uses data entered by the user regarding their condition: bipolar disorder. No other condition is managed by this application.

Any use or viewing of the Services provided by the maPollution application implies that the user of the application (hereinafter "User", "customer", or "You") agrees to comply with these Terms of Use (hereinafter "Terms of Use"). Please read the Terms of Use carefully, print them, and keep a copy.

Intellectual Property.

All elements of the Website and the Mobile Application (photographs, illustrations, pictograms, and descriptions, logo, and trademark) are and remain the exclusive intellectual property of Ronald Van Assche. The reproduction, representation, exploitation, redistribution, or use for any purpose whatsoever, even partially, of the elements of the Website and the Mobile Application, whether software, visual, or audio, is subject to the express prior authorization of Ronald Van Assche, the holder of all intellectual property rights.

GENERAL RULES OF USE

When using the application, you agree, by adopting normal and reasonable behavior, not to hinder its proper functioning in any way. In particular, you agree not to:

Disrupt, slow down, block, or alter the normal flow of data calculated within the application.

LIABILITY

Ronald Van Assche's liability for the application can only be incurred in the event of proven fault by the User and only for direct damages to the user. The maBipolarité app cannot and should not be used as a diagnostic tool, medical advice, or information tool on treatments prescribed by professionals. If you have any doubts about your state of health during an episode, consult a doctor, your psychiatrist (and not the charlatans known as psychoanalysts), the emergency room, or a hospital psychiatric unit.

MODIFICATION OF SERVICES AND TERMS OF USE

The app's service offering is evolving, and the author may launch new services and, where appropriate, remove some or modify the features of existing services, in accordance with the conditions set out below. Ronald Van Assche may also modify these Terms of Use without prior notice.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The app's Services developed by Ronald Van Assche are protected, in particular, by intellectual property law. The Author (Ronald Van Assche) grants you a personal, non-transferable, and non-exclusive right to use the application, provided that you are prohibited from copying, modifying, incorporating the technical elements of the application into a derivative work, performing reverse engineering, or using any other method to attempt to access the source code or algorithms. You agree not to access the Service by any means other than through the interface provided to you by the maPollution application for this purpose.

WARRANTIES

You expressly acknowledge and agree that:

The Application, which is free, is designed to meet the non-professional, reasonable, and normal use of the majority of users suffering from this illness: bipolar disorder.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

All information entered by the customer or from Apple Health is treated with the utmost rigor and discretion. No data is exported to any platform, and no statistical processing of views or data entry is performed. Nothing is extracted from your iPhone: the application still works if you are in "airplane" mode, for example. Only the client can perform a partial data output using the export tools available in certain parts of the application.
